Visit us on the Web: www.hfs.uw.edu
You've just gotten your assignment and have lots of questions. You can start by taking a look at the webpage for your building. There you can take a virtual tour, view a floor plan, and get information about the furnishings included.

We recommend that you coordinate with your apartment mates(s) so you do not bring duplicates of larger items. The less you bring, the more space you will have in your room.

You Should Bring:
- Bedsheets (extra-long twin)
- Pillows and pillowcases
- Blankets and comforter
- Towels
- Alarm clock
- Ethernet cable
- Study lamps (LED)
- Kitchen supplies (pots, pans, utensils, etc.)
- Bathroom & kitchen cleaning supplies.

What Appliances Can I Bring?
- Refrigerators 4.4 cubic feet or less
- Blenders and mixers
- Hot air popcorn poppers
- Rice cookers
- Hot pots and coffee pots, which must be placed on non-combustible surfaces such as ceramic tile
- Enclosed coil grills (Panini sandwich-type)
- One 700-watt maximum microwave oven per room (no other applicable may be used at the same time)

Prohibited Items
- Halogen lamps
- Space heaters
- All open-flame appliances (e.g., fondue pots)
- Open-coil appliances (e.g., toasters and toaster ovens)
- Full-size appliances or multiple appliances that exceed the usage limits of your room

See the housing agreement for details on all prohibited items.

Note: For the protection of your electrical appliances and equipment, it is recommended that only Underwriters Laboratories (UL)-approved power strips with built-in surge protectors or circuit breakers be used.

Refrigerators and microwave ovens
You may rent a small micro-fridge (microwave oven and refrigerator) from Collegiate Concepts Inc. (CCI). Arrangements for payment and delivery may be made directly with CCI. Complete information is provided on their website. Alternatively, you may choose to bring your own refrigerator (4.4 cubic feet or less) or microwave oven (700 watt maximum).

Linens
Residence hall beds are extra-long, and XL twin sheets fit best. The Residential Community Student Association (RCSA) has partnered with Our Campus Marketing (OCM) to make sure our students have an easy, affordable way to purchase bedding and campus living needs. Bedding items through this program will also fit standard twin beds. Please visit Our Campus Market for more information and to place an order.
Quarterly statements are emailed about a month before the due date. Billing for housing and tuition are completely separate. Housing and dining payments should always be made directly to HFS, never to the tuition account. You can pay online, by check, or in person.

Pay Online

You may make housing payments online with a Visa or MasterCard. HFS does not charge a convenience charge for using a debit or credit card online.

- Resident log in
- Pay on behalf of a resident

Pay by Mail

To pay with a check, write the name and student number in the memo line, and mail the check and a completed Check Remittance Form to:

University of Washington
Housing & Food Services
Financial Services Office
1045 NE Campus Parkway, Box 355607
Seattle, WA 98195-5607

Pay in Person

You may pay with cash or check at the Student Services Office, 210 Lander Hall, or the Husky Card Account & ID Center located on the ground floor of Odegaard Undergraduate Library, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.

Pay With Financial Aid

HFS will post housing and dining charges directly to your financial aid account, and then notify you if there is still a balance due after your financial aid allotment is exhausted. To pay with Financial Aid, please indicate on your housing application that you would like for HFS to draw on your financial aid funds to pay for housing or contact the Student Services Office for more information.

DEPOSIT PAYMENTS

Housing deposits may only be paid by credit card when the student is prompted for a deposit payment when completing the housing application process. Housing deposit payments can be made by mail or in person at any time but applications will not be completed until the funds arrive and are processed.

Payment Agreements

If you are not able to complete your HFS payment by the due date you may request a payment due date extension.

Your request must be received before due date to avoid a late charge on your account. Requests received after the due date may still be considered, but late charges will not be reversed.

As you consider requesting a payment agreement, please note the following:

- Accounts that are approved for a payment agreement will be given a payment due date extension through the end of the month in which the payment is due. Requests for a due date beyond our normal extension may be requested but would only be approved on a case by case basis.
- HFS cannot approve requests for monthly payment plans for residence hall residents.
- Students who are denied an extension or will need an extension longer than the last Friday of the month should consider a short term loan through Student Fiscal Services in order to make their housing payment by the due date.

Email Communication
You are responsible for reading information sent to your mailbox, posted on your room door, and/or sent by electronic communication to your University of Washington (UW) email account by Housing & Food Services (HFS). HFS will send most correspondence to applicants and residents via their UW email accounts. Please note that if you forward your UW email to a different account, it may be filtered, refused or treated as spam. HFS is not responsible for emails not received. To ensure delivery of emails from HFS to your email inbox, add hfsinfo@hfs.uw.edu and wrproc@hfs.uw.edu to your email address book or list of approved senders.

Preventing Bedbugs
Over the past decade, bedbugs have become a common problem throughout the United States, and the UW campus is not immune to this concern. While bed bugs are not known to spread disease and pose little risk to humans, HFS takes a proactive approach in addressing pest concerns to ensure high-quality living environments for residents. Here are some precautions you can take before you move in that will reduce the risk of bringing in bedbugs:

• Do not bring secondhand furniture. You don’t have much room to bring large or medium sized furniture, particularly if it hasn’t been inspected for bedbugs.
• Wash and dry clothing on high heat when traveling and wash bed linens weekly.

Obtain Personal Property Insurance
You are encouraged to insure your personal belongings. Check with your family’s insurance policy to see if your possessions are covered under that policy or if you can get renters insurance added. If not, you may wish to purchase insurance offered to UW students by an independent company.

Dining Options
Ensure that you have chosen a dining level that meets your needs. Review information about dining accounts in the Residential Dining Guide. You may change your dining level through the day before move-in each quarter, according to the following schedule:

• After you are assigned, you may change to a higher level at any time; you will receive the incentive for that quarter when you make the change.
• You may change to a lower dining account level for an upcoming quarter by making your request before the change deadlines shown

Autumn Quarter ........by August 31, 2017
Winter Quarter ..........by November 30, 2017
Spring Quarter ..........by April 30, 2018

With a Level 1-6 dining account, you will be eligible to receive a free drink each time you visit the residential dining areas, Local Point and The 8, offering a significant savings to overall meal costs. You’ll also receive 10 percent off the purchase of a Husky Meal at Local Point and The 8. The new Husky Meal provides a well-rounded lunch or dinner at a residents-only discount to maximize your dining dollars.

You can also purchase an Apartment Dining Plan. There are three available levels, ranging from $200–$600. Using an apartment dining plan gets you 10 percent off purchases at District Market and 10 percent off coffee and drinks purchased at the Husky Grind at District Market and Husky Grind at Mercer Court.
Authorize release of your information (FERPA release)
The Family Education Right and Privacy Act (FERPA) prevents us from releasing your information (including how much you owe on your housing account) to anyone other than yourself without your authorization. You may authorize HFS to release information about your housing account (e.g., to your parents/guardians) by supplying their names on your HFS student profile.

Note: HFS will not release room numbers to any unauthorized person including friends, parents, relatives.

Shipping Items prior to move-in Packages can be sent to your apartment up to 7 days prior to your scheduled move-in. Please see the Apartment Addresses table to determine your mailing address.

You will receive a notification to your UW email from HFS Desk Services when the desk receives your package. Upon move-in, any packages that were not previously delivered to your room will be available for pick up at your hall’s front desk. Please see the Residence Hall/Apartment Front Desks table to determine your front desk.

Mail
There is one mailbox per room. If you have roommates, you will share the mailbox.
Ensure your correspondents know to address mail to you correctly with your name, apartment name, and room number. Improperly addressed mail may be delayed or returned to the sender. See the Apartment Addresses table for your apartment address.

Please pass this information along to your friends and family. Do not send cash and gift cards via regular letter mail. It is advisable to send items of a valuable, sensitive, or timely nature with a tracking number and insurance.

Transportation and parking options
There are a lot of ways to get around the campus and the city. Some of your options are:

The U-PASS Program Using public transportation is an easy and wonderful way to get around campus and the city. UW students receive all the benefits of the U-Pass.

Bicycles Many students prefer to bring their bicycles to campus. Bike storage is available in and around the buildings. Register your bike with the UW Police Department (UWPD) and learn how to keep it safe.

Car and Motorcycle Parking A limited number of parking spaces on campus are reserved for residential students. If you must bring a vehicle to campus, you may apply for a parking space with the UW Transportation Services Office.
HUSKY CARD

UW students are issued an identification card (Husky Card) that has many uses including building access and library privileges. It is also the card you use to access your dining account funds. If you don't get your Husky Card during your Advising & Orientation session, you will need to get it from the Husky Card Account & ID Center during regular business hours.

A separate account, called the Husky Card Account, will have a $36 balance when you move in, which is automatically renewed at the beginning of each quarter. You, your parents, or anyone who knows your student number may add money to your Husky Card account at any time. Money in this account may be used in the residence hall laundry facilities, at the University Book Store, for on-campus parking, and as a backup in case you run out of Dining Account funds. Husky Card Account funds do not expire and are fully refundable upon request.

YOUR RESIDENTIAL HUSKY EXPERIENCE

We've said before but it's super important, so we'll say it again: between classes, study, friends, and activities, there are dozens of places you'll be throughout your day. Whether or not you got your first choice of room or roommate, your Husky Experience can be rich and fulfilling. Resident Advisers (RAs), Community Assistants (CAs), student staff members in your community and Resident Directors (RDs), the building managers, can be great resources for you as you transition into your new residential community and begin exploring. Social and learning opportunities abound, and you can start planning your experience now. Here are some tips to help.

Living with a roommate

It is important to begin communicating with your roommate(s) and apartment-mate(s) early and often. Coordinating with your roommate(s) about items to bring to the room and other things can make the transition process much smoother.

It is also important to begin thinking about boundaries and logistics as you prepare to move in to your residential community. Your Resident Adviser (RA)/Community Assistant (CA) will provide you and your roommate(s) with a Roommate Agreement and you and your apartment-mate(s) with an Apartment Agreement upon move-in to help you establish expectations; they will keep it for reference, and it even can be amended throughout the academic year.

Living in a community

Living on campus offers you a unique and exciting opportunity to learn about people, their cultures and lifestyles. Share your experiences with others; there are few times in our lives when we have the chance to live closely with so many different people.

GOOD COMMUNICATION

Good communication is the basis for positive relationships, especially with people who live in the same room, apartment or community. Talking with your roommate(s) and apartment-mate(s) about your communication habits will help you develop and sustain good relationships. Talk about your expectations of one another right away.

It is important that you agree on how you will live together. Don't wait until conflict arises to begin talking about how you want to share the room.

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

If you need help solving a problem involving your roommate(s), apartment-mate(s), or neighbors you can talk to your RA/CA or your community's Resident Director. They will assist you in finding a solution on your own or, if necessary, will intervene when a situation cannot be resolved by dialogue and communication.

PRIVACY AND SAFETY

Resident safety is one of the UW's highest priorities. Our safety policy was developed in conjunction with UW regulations and Washington State statutes regarding student privacy. HFS will not, under any circumstances, release room numbers or telephone numbers to any unauthorized person including friends, parents, and relatives. Although this policy may seem inconvenient at times, it provides residents protection and a secure living environment within the UW. We encourage students to make sure their families and friends have their address, as well as their room and telephone numbers.
SUSTAINABILITY IN THE RESIDENTIAL COMMUNITIES

Ultimately, it is up to all of us to take positive action to reduce our impact on the environment. With your help, the UW and HFS are working to create a culture of sustainability. Students living in the residential communities are encouraged to participate in sustainable practices, reducing both their carbon footprint and their day-to-day environmental impact.

HFS works hard to be ecologically responsible, and you have an important role to play. Consider the following:

• Carefully assess what you need to bring, and talk to your roommate(s) about what can be shared.
• If possible, leave your car at home. Students and staff bike, walk and take the bus, and the U-PASS is the best transportation deal in Seattle!
• Choose Energy Star-certified products to ensure energy efficiency when purchasing appliances, lighting, and electronics.
• Use light-emitting diodes (LEDs) in your lamps and task lights.
• Carry a reusable mug for coffee; many merchants (including campus cafes and espresso bars) offer a discount to customers who have their own cups.
• The UW campus greatly values composting and recycling so it is important to understand how to compost and recycle when living in the residential communities.

If you want to get more involved with sustainability on campus, visit a Students Expressing Environmental Dedication (SEED) meeting once the quarter starts or check out the SEED website.

Trash, Recycling & Compost

Each building has designated locations for waste and during move-in, signage will guide you to these areas. At the UW waste is separated into Trash, Recycling, and Compost streams. Cardboard boxes should be broken down, flattened, and placed in labeled dumpsters or on the floor of your trash room.
There are many amenities and activities that you can begin taking advantage of right when you move on to campus. Get to know these now so you can be plugged in before classes even start!

Area 01 Community Center

Area 01, in Maple Hall, is a community-focused interdisciplinary learning destination featuring a makerspace, music and video labs and a gaming area. Area 01 even has a Dabble Lab, a space for creative exploration including 3D printing, laser cutting, and more. Make sure to check out the Area 01 website and like them on Facebook.

Fitness Center West

Fitness Center West, located in Elm Hall, is a large fitness facility right in the residential community. Open to HFS residential students only, this facility offers cardio equipment, free weights, and strength equipment. Classes including yoga and circuit training are available quarterly in the two large fitness studios. Check out Fitness Center West’s web page and like them on Facebook before arriving to campus!

RPB Events

The Residential Programming Board (RPB) plans 26 fun and social programs each quarter to get residents out of their rooms and connecting with the people around them. From Midnight Carnival to kick off the year to movie screenings to cooking workshops, RPB events always offer a way to unplug from classes and have fun with your friends! Follow RPB on Facebook now so that you get updates of all the events coming up during Autumn Quarter.

REP Events

The Residence Education Programmer (REP) team plan events that are hosted right in your residential community! The REP programs focus on educational aspects such as wellness, diversity, and academic success. Make sure to check out the REPs on Facebook so that you can be in the know of when events are coming up in your community.
GET INVOLVED IN YOUR RESIDENTIAL COMMUNITY

You go to class. You study. You make connections and have fun with new friends in your residential community. You attend programs and activities that are organized by student leaders or your RA/CA. Why not get involved in your residential community to further enhance your Husky Experience?

Benefits of being involved:
- Meet new people
- Gain leadership experience
- Learn about other opportunities on campus
- Expand your resume (companies and organizations are looking for people who have both academic knowledge as well as leadership skills)
- Create yourself (college years are a time for exploration)
- Test yourself (move beyond your comfort zone)

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Apply for positions on your Community Council starting now! There are many different opportunities depending on your interest and availability:
- Become a member of the Executive Board
- Join or chair a committee to put on hall events
- Voice your opinions about life or food in the residential dining facilities
- Be a part of making changes that improve the quality of life in the residential communities

To apply for a Community Council position or to get more information about other leadership opportunities, visit the Residence Education website.

Apply to work for HFS

Our Desk Services, UW Dining and Residential Life units have job opportunities for students in the residence halls throughout campus. Apply before moving on campus! Students are paid an hourly wage and receive valuable training and experience. Positions fill quickly, so apply now!

The UW is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.
DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

You have decided to join a new community, one that very much values the diversity of its members. With more than 8,000 students, the on-campus residential community boasts an array of values, beliefs, perspectives, and abilities. This rich diversity is one of the reasons living in residence is such a valuable and worthwhile experience.

HFS strives to create an environment of mutual respect. In addition to offering many programs and services that support this goal, HFS works collaboratively with numerous offices on campus to advise and support our work and our students, including the Office of Minority Affairs & Diversity, the Ethnic Cultural Center/Theatre, the UW Women’s Center, Hillel at the UW, the Office of International Education, the Q Center, the Foundation for International Understanding Through Students, and Disability Resources for Students.

Whether it is through our collaboration with other offices, special event programming in the residential communities or a social on your floor, HFS staff strive to ensure that residents get to know each other and gain a better understanding of others. We ask that you do your part by respecting others’ traditions and beliefs. We set this expectation for you with the following statement:

Everyone who chooses to live in or visit our residential communities has their own beliefs and must understand that acts that denigrate an individual’s national origin, race, gender, gender expression, sexual orientation, heritage, culture, religion, disability or age have no place in our community. Strive to understand the individual differences of those around you, especially your roommate(s), apartment-mate(s) and neighbors. As you engage in daily activities and interactions, challenge yourself to learn from others. Give others the respect and tolerance that you desire.

If you become aware of any situation or incident where this community standard of mutual respect has been violated, please discuss it with a Residential Life staff member. You may wish to talk with a staff member about the following circumstances: homophobic comments, ethnic or racial slurs, any action or situation involving physical or mental abuse, threats to a person’s health or welfare, and offensive displays and pranks.

Though some of these acts may be subtle in nature, it is important that staff members are made aware so they can appropriately address the situation. You may wish to contact your RA/CA or speak to your Resident Director in the Residential Life Office (Monday-Friday 1-6p.m. or by appointment). All communications will be handled with sensitivity and discretion.

Setting this standard for our residential community and having high expectations of our residents ensures that students can have a productive, meaningful and personally rewarding experience while living on campus.
THE MOVE-IN PROCESS

When you arrive

Have your Husky Card (UW student ID) ready Your Husky Card allows you access to your apartment, dining facilities and HFS amenities. You will be asked to present it at check-in. You will be able to check in by showing another form of photo ID; however, the Husky Card is your key card for access to your residence hall. If you don’t receive your card before you move in, you will need to obtain one from the Husky Card Account & ID Center, located on the ground floor of the Odegaard Undergraduate Library. Office hours are Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. As a resident, you must present your ID to check-in. Friends or family cannot check-in and receive keys on your behalf.

You will receive your keys After your identity and assignment information have been confirmed, you will be given your room and mailbox keys when you check in. The keys are assigned to you uniquely; avoid switching keys with a roommate. Report lost or stolen keys to your front desk immediately. Once you have received your keys, you may begin moving into your room.

Red Emergency backpack New residents are provided with a red emergency kit backpack when they first check into their residential room. This comprehensive kit includes water, food rations and other emergency supplies. The contents will remain viable for several years. If you have lived on campus in the past, please bring your kit when you return to campus. Please keep your emergency kit for as long as you live with us.

Room Condition Report (RCR) You should inspect your room/cluster upon arrival and use the RCR found in your room to note any existing damage to furniture, surfaces or fixtures, or items missing from your room or cluster. Return your RCR to your RA/CA or your Residential Life Office. When you vacate, housing staff will use the report to determine if there are additional damages or missing items. Any damages or missing items not declared on the report will be your responsibility and will be charged to your account when you vacate.
Other Things you can do

Check your mailbox and pick up packages After you have checked in, received your keys, and unloaded your belongings, stop at your residence hall’s front desk to find your mailbox, check your mail and pick up any packages you sent ahead of time. Bring your Husky Card with you, as ID is required every time you pick up a package. Your mailbox is located near your apartment’s front desk.

  * Monday–Friday, 12 p.m.–7 p.m.
  * Saturday–Sunday, 10 a.m.–3 p.m.

If your desk is the Lander Hall Regional Desk, please use the package kiosk every time you pick up packages because it helps to keep the line moving quickly. To use the kiosk follow the instructions then proceed to the line for the desk. The package kiosk is located just past the Lander Desk near the resident mailboxes.

Hook up your TV to satellite (optional) HuskyTV is a satellite package arranged through the UW. If you have a cable-ready TV, all you need is a coaxial cable to hook up to your HuskyTV lineup. You must also program your TV to receive the cable signal. If you have any problems with access, please call the Facilities Services and Planning Office at 206-543-4017.

Download the Pac-12 Now app (optional) View live events featuring UW coverage in football, men’s and women’s basketball and Olympic sports on the Pac-12 Network. For FREE access, follow these simple steps:
1. Download the Pac-12 Now app or go to Pac-12.com/live
2. Select UW HuskyTV as your TV provider
3. Enter your UW NetID and password, follow the instructions and enjoy!

Hook up your computer (optional) Students receive a UW NetID, which is necessary to set up a UW email account. Personal computers connected to the UW network must be kept free of viruses, use firewalls, and be patched with updated software. Compromised or infected computers will be denied network access. If you have any problems with access, call the UW IT Service Center at 206-221-5000 or email help@uw.edu.
Please plan to arrive during the check-in appointment time indicated on your assignment email. If you are unable to arrive at your appointment time, you may request an alternate time. Be sure to allow two to three hours to move in.
